Eye Of Nature

Eye on Nature: Andrew Wyeth and John Ruskin. March 10, 2018 - May 27, 2018. Born almost exactly 100 years apart, the American painter, Andrew Wyeth, and the British artist, John Ruskin, had much in common. They both explored the natural world with a deep sense of the sublime, and both were deeply concerned with the role of art in society. This exhibition brings together a selection of works by both artists, highlighting the ways in which their approach to the natural world was both similar and different. It is a testament to the enduring power of the sublime, and to the enduring importance of the natural world in our lives.
